

Our Vision is a Person, Our Vision is Jesus Christ 21st FEBRUARY 2021: FIRST SUNDAY OF LENT

The New and Eternal Covenant

In the first Sunday of Lent the Church invites us to meditate on the first covenant that God made with Noah, and through Noah with all of mankind.

To understand this extraordinary text which we read in the first reading, we have to bear in mind that it is not just a story which tells of an event that happened many years ago. The Covenant that God made with Noah, which concerns the relationship between God and humanity, was everlasting and is still valid today.

‘See, I establish my Covenant with you, and with your descendants after you’, these are the words of the Lord. It is the first time that we find the word "covenant" to describe God's relationship with mankind; a word that is the keystone of the whole history of salvation.

What does it mean? Covenant means a free relationship between two people, the Lord and mankind. It is much more than the relationship between Creator and creature. This relationship is put in place by God himself; it is He who takes the initiative. It is a proposal that is made to mankind by pure grace. By virtue of this decision, God commits himself to mankind, solemnly, ‘No thing of flesh shall be swept away again by the waters of the flood’. God has committed himself forever not to let evil destroy the universe He created. Mankind is definitively freed from the fear of falling back into nothingness and being swallowed up by chaos. God has committed Himself so that His "yes" is never again changed by mankind's "no".

‘Here is the sign of the Covenant I make between myself and you’. Spouses wear a ring that is called a wedding ring. It is the sign that reminds them and others that they are united in marriage. God also wanted a sign, like a kind of wedding ring, so that He could remember the commitment He made to mankind. What is this sign? Let us listen to what St. Peter tells us in the second reading, ‘Christ himself, innocent though he was, died once for sins, died for the guilty, to lead us to God’. The definitive sign of God's fidelity to mankind is Christ ‘put to death’ for us. God establishes the new Covenant with mankind in the death and resurrection of Jesus and it is remembered every time we celebrate the Eucharist.

When the priest says the words of Jesus, ‘Do this in memory of me’, it's like saying, ‘I - Jesus, who died for you - established the new Covenant in my body and in my blood. To you my disciples I give the possibility to become part of this Covenant, eating my body and drinking my blood.’ Why does the Church invite us to meditate on the Covenant, at the beginning of Lent? It is because mankind wants to continue to live independently, not in the Covenant with the Lord; this is the way that leads to death.

Lent is a favourable time. It is a time to free ourselves from falsehood and to fully confirm our baptismal promises. It is in Baptism that God has established the Covenant with each of us.

Fr Marco

Bible Study - 7.30-9.00pm via Zoom "Rebuilding the Ruins"

Our Lenten Bible Study this year looks squarely at the world we live in - a world in which injustice remains a feature, with unequal access to decent housing, the need to embrace humanity across racial divides, stemming if not reversing creation's desecration and rebuilding God's church to reflect God's character. The unflinching look at the world of "ruins" in which we live is through the lens of the Old Testament prophets. The hope for "rebuilding the ruins" is grounded in the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

The theme for the first week is Ancient Ruins.

Everyone is welcome to come to both Supper and Bible Study or just one if you cannot make both.

Each Bible Study stands on its own.

If you would like to join us please contact Bob and Marion Birtles on bbirtles@portsmouthdiocese.org.uk for the Zoom link.
