

Our Vision is a Person, Our Vision is Jesus Christ
14th FEBRUARY 2021: SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY

The Next Step

We all love the magical atmosphere of Christmas: the silence, the tenderness that we see on the faces of Mary, Joseph and the Shepherds, the uplifting hymns and songs... everything seems to lead us in another world, ruled by serenity and joy. Trials, troubles and chaos seem to vanish. Only the peaceful face of the baby Jesus remains.

But this is only the beginning of a journey. The liturgical year yet doesn't end with Christmas. It goes on, through Lent to Easter. Why? Let me use an image: it is as if after Christmas, during the following weeks, we see the baby Jesus growing, leaving the crib and taking the first steps towards us and then, already a young man of thirty years old, asking us, "Now, who do you think I am?". And this is the beginning of Lent: Jesus asking us to take a stand. While Christmas is the time of worship and admiration, Lent is the time when we are now asked to say "yes" or "no" to Jesus. While Christmas is the time when Jesus is in front of us, Lent is the time when he has to become "ours", he has to enter in us, through the door of our freedom.

If we look at the readings the Church chooses, we notice that Lent always begins with the story of Jesus tempted in the desert by the devil. The devil always has one purpose: to make us settle, to believe that little things, like career, success, money, popularity, health... are enough to fill our heart. But the story of the temptation of Jesus, with him renouncing all of these "little things", shows us that our heart is made for something greater. Our heart desires God. He alone can give us what we look for. It is now clear that Lent is the time for choosing the right thing: we are asked to say "yes" to God and his presence and "no" to everything that is less than him.

This is also the meaning of the words the priest says while, on Ash Wednesday, he distributes ashes: Convert and believe in the Gospel, namely, "change your targets, change direction (this is the meaning of the word convert) and say yes to Jesus."

Finally, to say yes to Jesus and let him enter in us, is not rocket science! It's really easy: it means to embrace and love our life (our family, our job, our community) as a gift from Him, as the path given to us to enjoy his friendship. This is the step the following weeks are asking us to take: from the "wow" of Christmas to the "yes" of Lent.

Fr Luca

MESSAGES

Rules for Ash Wednesday & Lent

Roman Catholics must abstain from meat on all Fridays during Lent. On Ash Wednesday Roman Catholics must fast and abstain from meat. Fasting means that they may eat one full meal, and they may eat two small meals as well. The two smaller meals must not equal one full meal. There are exceptions to these rules. Those from ages 18-59 must fast. If you are younger than 18 or older than 59 you do not have to fast. Women who are pregnant or nursing also do not have to fast, furthermore, if you have a health problem that makes fasting unhealthy for you, you do not have to fast.

Stations of the Cross During Lent

Holy Cross - Fridays at 6pm (starting 19th Feb), this may be attended in person in the church, it will also be live streamed, please go to our website for the link.

OLQA - Wednesdays at 7pm (starting 24th Feb), this may be attended by up to 25 people in the church, it will also be available via Zoom, please go to our website for the link.

Fridays in Lent

Beginning Friday 19th Feb at 7pm

"Knowing your Catholic Faith" - a series of talks by fr Bruce. To help us understand the teaching of our church so that we may be able to explain it to others. This may be attended by up to 25 people in church and will also be available via Zoom. Please go to our website for the link.

Special Mass

Monday 22nd February is the anniversary of fr Luigi Giussani's death (the founder of Communion & Liberation). On this day we will celebrate a special Mass for him at 9.30am in Holy Cross, this will also be live-streamed.
