

Our Vision is a Person, Our Vision is Jesus Christ

31st May 2020: PENTECOST SUNDAY

Solemnity of Pentecost

The Feast of Pentecost commemorates the outpouring of the Holy Spirit on the Apostles gathered in the Upper Room. Like Easter, this event took place on a pre-existing Jewish feast and ended with a surprise. The Acts of the Apostles describes the signs and fruits of that extraordinary outpouring: the strong wind and tongues of fire; fear disappeared, leaving courage in its place; tongues melted and everyone understood the message. Wherever the Spirit of God reaches, everything is reborn and transfigured. Pentecost is the event that signals the birth of the Church and her public manifestation; and two features strike us: the Church astounds and confuses.

A fundamental element of Pentecost is astonishment. Our God is a God of astonishment, this we know. No one expected anything more from the disciples: after Jesus' death they were a small, insignificant group of defeated orphans of their Master. There occurred instead an unexpected event that astounded: the people were astonished because each of them heard the disciples speaking in their own tongues, telling of the great works of God (cf. Acts 2:6-7, 11). The Church born at Pentecost is an astounding community because, with the force of her arrival from God, a new message is proclaimed — the Resurrection of Christ — with a new language — the universal one of love. A new proclamation: Christ lives, he is risen; a new language: the language of love. The disciples are adorned with power from above and speak with courage — only minutes before they all were cowardly, but now they speak with courage and candour, with the freedom of the Holy Spirit.

Thus the Church is called into being forever: capable of astounding while proclaiming to all that Jesus Christ has conquered death, that God's arms are always open, that his patience is always there awaiting us in order to heal us, to forgive us. The risen Jesus bestowed his Spirit on the Church for this very mission.

Take note: if the Church is alive, she must always surprise. It is incumbent upon the living Church to astound. A Church which is unable to astound is a Church that is weak, sick, dying, and that needs admission to the intensive care unit as soon as possible!

Some in Jerusalem would have liked for Jesus' disciples, frozen in fear, to remain locked inside so as not to create confusion. Even today, many would like this from the Christians. Instead, the risen Lord pushes them into the world: "As the Father has sent me, even so I send you" (Jn 20:21). The Church of the Pentecost is a Church that won't submit to being powerless, too "distilled". No, she doesn't submit to this! She doesn't want to be a decoration. She is a Church that doesn't hesitate to go out, meet the people, proclaim the message that's been entrusted to her, even if that message disturbs or unsettles the conscience, even if that message perhaps brings problems and sometimes leads to martyrdom. She is born one and universal, with a distinct identity, but open, a Church that embraces the world but doesn't seize it; she sets it free, but embraces it like the colonnade in this Square: two arms that open to receive, but that don't close to detain. We Christians are free, and the Church wants us free!

We turn to the Virgin Mary, who in that Pentecost morning was in the Upper Room, the Mother with her children. In her, the force of the Holy Spirit truly accomplished "great things" (Lk 1:49). She herself said so. May she, the Mother of the Redeemer and Mother of the Church, obtain through her intercession a renewed outpouring of God's Spirit upon the Church and upon the world.

Pope Francis

MESSAGES

Offerings for our Parish

Due to the current lockdown for public health and safety, parish finances need to be considered. We have expanded our donation section on the website. There is now a document with a comprehensive guide found at the bottom of the donation section.

If you normally give using Planned Giving Envelopes, or in the plate, you obviously will not be able to give that way for the foreseeable future. Please consider making your offerings by direct Bank Transfer, Direct Debit or Standing Order. We have listed the bank account details and the contact details of the Gift Aid Co-ordinators if you are a tax payer and wish to increase your donation by adding the gift aid element. The Coordinators are happy to advise you on setting up direct debit/standing orders and have the necessary documentation for your use.

Scamming during lockdown

Unfortunately, during this time there are many scams happening via email and phone. In other parts of England there have been emails going around that ask for donations to care homes and the NHS with the name of the parish priest but these are scams. Please be cautious about any such emails or calls.

Lockdown Quiz

On Sunday 7th June at 5.00pm there will be a quiz for all the parishioners. If you want to play as a family, couple, or individual join us! The first three winners will receive special prizes. During the quiz be prepared for surprises and entertainment.

You can join the quiz through our Zoom connection found on the next page of the newsletter.

Good Companions

It is with great sadness that there will be no further lunches, as Helen and Daverio are no longer at Keats. The lunches have been running for many, many years and we have enjoyed delicious meals, friendship and fun. We wish Helen and Daverio all the joy and happiness in their retirement, grateful for what they and their amazing staff have given to us, especially those living alone or lonely.
