 Weekday Cycle: Year 1
 Psalter Week: 4

FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Over the last week the pope was in Panama in occasion of the 34th World Youth Day. Below we quote some phrases of the Homily of the last day that can inspire us.

“The eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed on him. And he began to say to them: ‘Today this Scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing’” (Lk 4:20-21).

With these words, the Gospel presents the beginning of Jesus’ public ministry. It started in the synagogue that saw him grow up; he was in the midst of neighbours and people he knew, and perhaps even some of his childhood “catechists” who had taught him the Law. It was an important moment in the life of the Master: the child who was educated and grew up in that community, stood up and took the floor to proclaim and put into action God’s dream. A word previously proclaimed only as a future promise, but now, on the lips of Jesus alone, could be spoken in the present tense, as it became a reality: “Today it has been fulfilled”.

Jesus reveals the now of God, who comes to meet us and call us to take part in his now of “proclaiming good news to the poor... bringing liberty to the captives and recovering of sight to the blind, setting at liberty those who are oppressed, announcing the year of the Lord’s favour” (Lk 4:18-19). This is the now of God. It becomes present with Jesus: it has a face, it is flesh. It is a merciful love that does not wait for ideal or perfect situations to show itself, nor does it accept excuses for its appearance. It is God’s time, that makes every situation and place both right and proper. In Jesus, the promised future begins and becomes life.

When? Now. Yet not everyone who was listening felt invited or called. Not all the residents of Nazareth were prepared to believe in someone they knew and had seen grow up, and who was now inviting them to realize a long-awaited dream. Not only that, but they said, “Is not this Joseph’s son?” (Lk 4:22).

The same thing can also happen with us. We do not always believe that God can be that concrete and commonplace, that close and real, and much less that he can become so present and work through somebody like a neighbour, a friend, a relative. We do not always believe that the Lord can invite us to work and soil our hands with him in his Kingdom in that simple and blunt a way. It is hard to accept that “God’s love can become concrete and can almost be experienced in history with all its painful and glorious vicissitudes”.

Often we too behave like the neighbours in Nazareth: we prefer a distant God: nice, good, generous, well depicted, yet far-off, and above all a God who does not inconvenience us, a “domesticated” God. Because a close and everyday God, a God who is friend and brother, demands that we be concerned with our surroundings, everyday affairs and above all fraternity. God chose not to reveal himself as an angel or in some spectacular way, but to give us a face that is fraternal and friendly, concrete and familiar. God is real because love is real; God is concrete because love is concrete. Indeed, this “concrete manifestation of love is one of the essential elements in the life of Christians”.

You, dear young people, are not the future. We like to say, “you are the future”. No, you are the present. You are not the future of God, you young people are the now of God. He invites you and calls you in your communities and cities to go out and find your grandparents, your elders; to stand up and with them to speak out and realize the dream that the Lord has dreamed for you.

Not tomorrow, now, for wherever your treasure is now, there will your heart also be (cf. Mt 6:21). Whatever you fall in love with, it will win over not only your imagination, it will affect everything. It will be what makes you get up in the morning, what keeps you going at times of fatigue, what will break open your hearts and fill you with wonder, joy and gratitude. Realize that you have a mission and fall in love; that will decide everything. We may possess everything, but, dear young friends, if we lack the passion of love, we will have nothing. The passion of love today! Let us allow the Lord to make us fall in love and let him take us into the future!

February Parish Events

Holy Cross - Children's Mass

As a new initiative for Holy Cross and to enable our children to play a more active role during Mass, we are making the first 11am Sunday Mass in each month, a 'Children's Mass'. This will begin on 3rd February.

Children who feel able and are independent enough to sit in a group together during Mass will be invited to an area at the front of the Church. We hope for them to feel a sense of community with their peers and have an opportunity to share a few necessary tasks. There will be no Children's Liturgy on these mornings as the Liturgy team will be needed to co-ordinate and sit nearby to support.

We are hoping these Masses will develop and become a regular feature. We know that everyone will make our children welcome so they feel recognised as the important part of our community that they are. Thank you. Children's Liturgy Team

Good Companions - Wednesday 6th February

The next lunch for those who live alone or are lonely will be at 12.30pm at Keats Restaurant, Ampfield. Transport can be arranged if required.

Why not join us and enjoy good food, and friendly company in pleasant surroundings. Please ring Pauline on 02380 266617 or Susie on 02380 263436 to book a place.

Message from Bishop Philip (Diocesan E-News)

Southampton University Chaplaincy

On Sunday evening, I said the 18:30hr Mass in the Chaplaincy at Southampton University. It was a great occasion, and afterwards we went to the Faith and Reflection Centre for a shared meal. It was great too, to meet up once again with those students who had been with us at SEEK2019. Representatives from the Catenians were present as well and afterwards they generously presented a cheque of £550 towards liturgical items to enhance the future celebration of Mass in the chaplaincy. I was pleased with the joyful and energetic atmosphere of the Chaplaincy. I kept thinking how wonderful it would be if, instead of commandeering each week a lecture room for Mass, one day we might be able to have a permanent chapel and home on the campus for the Catholic chaplaincy. Clearly, the Chaplaincy is a lifeline for many, especially the overseas students, and a means of deepening faith in the Lord. Please pray for this intention that, if it be the Lord's will, we might be able to go forward with this. Meanwhile, do remember in your prayers the chaplains and also the FOCUS team.

Diocesan Events

Join us for the Lourdes Pilgrimage this summer Thursday 25th July - Monday 29th July 2019

The price (from £645) includes airline taxes and charges, UK government levy and Lourdes city tax. In conjunction with the main pilgrimage is our diocesan youth pilgrimage. The youth will be leading some of the liturgies and generally assisting, as well as having their own programme of formation, prayer and fun. The youth pilgrimage lasts 7 days from Wednesday 24th to Tuesday 30th July and travels by coach. They will be staying with us in Hotel La Solitude. The youth pilgrimage costs £475 per person.
